

AERgO International Appointed Exclusive General Sales Agent for Nauru Airlines

Brisbane, Australia – 2 May 2025

Nauru Airlines and AERgO International are pleased to announce the appointment of AERgO International as the exclusive General Sales Agent (GSA) for Nauru Airlines' charter services, further strengthening a longstanding and successful partnership between two of the region's most experienced aviation operators.

The appointment represents a significant milestone in the continued collaboration between AERgO International and Nauru Airlines. With over two decades of partnership, the two organisations have consistently delivered safe, reliable, and customer-focused charter solutions across Australia, the Pacific, and Internationally.

AERgO International, Australia's premier aviation solutions provider, brings deep expertise in aircraft charter, special mission operations, and asset management. Combined with Nauru Airlines' strong operational capability and long-standing reputation for excellence in the Pacific, this strategic partnership will enhance service offerings and create greater access and opportunities for charter clients across the region.

"Formalising our role as exclusive GSA for Nauru Airlines reflects the strength of our relationship and shared commitment to excellence," said Ezra Fasan, Group CEO of AERgO International. "Together, we are perfectly positioned to deliver tailored, responsive charter solutions to meet the growing demands of our clients in Australia, the Pacific, and Globally."

Robert Eoe, CEO of Nauru Airlines, welcomed the appointment, stating: "AERgO has been a trusted partner of Nauru Airlines for many years. Their understanding of the charter market and commitment to service excellence aligns perfectly with our vision. This appointment ensures that our charter customers will receive the highest levels of professionalism, responsiveness, and value – whether operating within Australia, or across the world.

This appointment ensures improved responsiveness, streamlined communications, and access to a broader range of services for clients seeking aircraft charter solutions – from Government and corporate needs, to Humanitarian, FIFO, and bespoke missions.

Marking a new chapter in a trusted partnership, AERgO International and Nauru Airlines look forward to expanding their impact in the aviation charter sector, delivering reliable solutions backed by operational integrity and regional insight.

Ezra Fasan

AERgO International Group CEO

Robert Eoe

Nauru Airlines CEO